3. You're at the end of a season and you don't know what you want to do next.
4. You've never taken the time to define your calling, discover your true potential and find a way to do it.
5. You work hard and make life work, but you lack joy.
6. You've been through a difficult season and you feel the need to gain perspective and renewed purpose to move forward with confidence.
7. You feel that you have "settled" for a life that holds you back and stifles your full potential.
